

Deerfield Native Serves as Congressional Intern

in Moran's Washington, D.C. Office

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Congressman Jerry Moran announced that Mike Nolan is serving as a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C. office. Nolan is a 2005 graduate of Deerfield High School and a 2009 graduate of Kansas State University with degrees in political science and rhetorical communication.

“Congressional internships offer Kansas students a great opportunity to learn about Congress and the legislative process,” Moran said. “Mike is doing important work for Kansans and gaining valuable experience that will help him in the future.”

Nolan is currently a graduate student at the University of Missouri – Kansas City and is pursuing his Master’s degree in public affairs. After graduation, he hopes to work in community development.

“Working for Congressman Moran has been an extremely insightful experience,” Nolan said. “By helping Kansans participate in the legislative process, I have gained a true appreciation for democracy and my duties as a citizen.”

Nolan assists Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas.

Kansans interested in applying for a Congressional internship in Washington, D.C., Hays, Hutchinson and Salina, can learn more by visiting Congressman Jerry Moran's website: www.jerrymoran.house.gov.
